A Simple and Certain Method by Which Chlorosis, a Frequent Affliction of Growing Girls, May be Overcome.

Every mother knows that the danger line in the development of a girl is crossed at the point where girlhood and womanhood meet. This critical point cannot be too closely guarded. Care insures robust health; neglect means living misery.

Mrs. E. C. Young, of No. 303 Lynn street, Ithaca, N. Y., was safely brought through her girlhood's trying period by a simple course of treatment, after physicians had failed to help her. "When I was seventeen," she says, "I began to fail in health and, in spite of all the medicines our family doctor gave me, I continued to grow worse. Neither he nor another doctor who also attended me seemed to be able to reach the cause of my trouble. It was chlorosis, they said, a form of anaemia with which girls of about that age are often afflicted. I was troubled with shortness of breath, hadn't a bit of color and couldn't go upstairs without being all tired out. My limbs were dreadfully swollen and my appetite entirely gone. I had nervous headaches for which a doctor recommended glasses, but the glasses did not cure them. Each month I suffered a great deal of pain and was very irritable.

"This condition kept growing worse for three years until finally it became intolerable and I began to hunt eagerly for some remedy that could effect a certain cure. Finally I found a friend who said she had been cured of a similar trouble by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, after her case had been pronounced hopeless. Upon her strong recommendation I decided to take this remedy. Relief was almost immediate and after using the pills for a short time I was cured altogether and I have remained perfectly well and strong ever since."

The value of such a remedy is beyond the power of words to express, for it determines the happiness of a lifetime. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all druggists, or will be sent direct from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., postpaid on receipt of price, fifty cents per box; six boxes for two dollars and a half.

W. N. ARMSTRONG IS VERY MUCH ALIVE

In the issue of March 10th the New York Herald devotes a column to extracts from "Around the World With a King," Hon. W. N. Armstrong's book. The review begins by stating that "Mr. W. N. Armstrong (late deceased) was the Attorney General of King Kalakaua." The careless reviewer had confused the name of the author with that of his brother, the late General S. C. Armstrong. This confusion of personality coming to the notice of Mr. Robert C. Ogden of the firm of Wanamaker of New York, brought out the following statement in the Herald of the 19th:

The following amusing letter is published, with thanks to Mr. Robert C. Ogden and with apologies to Mr. W. N. Armstrong:—
"I have been much amused this morning over the beginning and end of the Herald's review of the book, 'Around the World With a King,' by W. N. Armstrong. It refers to him at the opening as deceased, and at the close that he had left the manuscript of his book.

"Considering that Armstrong has had an experience never enjoyed by any other American in the courts of the world, especially in Oriental courts, and that he is a tremendously active and lively personality, the references in question were amusing, and to a degree comforting, as demonstrating the fact that even high class journalism (like retail trading) may sometimes be punctuated with error. The tie that binds humanity together a little more strongly than any other is the fellowship of shortcomings. It furnishes the real democracy of humanity.

"Yours very much,
"ROBERT C. OGDEN.

HILO, April 8.—Quite a breezy meeting of the 4th precinct club was held at Fireman's hall Wednesday evening, and the coup de etat of the Young Men's Republican Club in capturing that meeting showed the master hand of a practical politician. None other than a Napoleon in the art of manipulation and machine politics could have marshalled his forces so well. It now remains to be seen whether this organization of young Hawaiians and sons of the soil will allow themselves, under the leadership of a discredited Home Ruler and renegade from the Republican party, to precipitate a factional feeling in the Republican ranks, as such tactics as were pursued Wednesday night are likely to do. It is not unusual to hear green goods and petty confidence men and card gamblers talk of the public as suckers or sheep to be sheared, but either the Republicans are indifferent to the situation or the wolf does not even attempt to pull the sheepskin around him.

Rufus A. Lyman was elected Secretary of the Club, Carl Smith and W. Ragsdale being added to the Executive Committee. Stephen Desha and W. Todd were elected Judges of Election, vice J. T. Stacker and Wm. Vannatta, resigned.

The following are the nominees to be voted upon at the coming primaries: Stephen Desha, J. C. Ridgway, Chas. Akau, Carl Smith, M. G. Santos, A. Richly, Wm. Todd, J. Gouvea, Wm. Beers.—Tribune.

ORIENTAL BALL.
The invitations issued some two weeks ago, addressed to all Japanese, Chinese, Arabians, Egyptians, Hindoos and all Unbelievers, to attend at Spreckels' hall on the wane of the moon, Monday, the day after the third of April, and there bid "Soyonara" to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McKenney, who are leaving for the coast, brought forth on the evening appointed a gala crowd of Orientals. The dainty "musume" from Japan mingled with the fierce and ferocious Russian Lord from Manchuria; while the beautiful veiled maid from the land of the Turk made many a Mandarin from Nanking forget his small-footed wife near by; the Korean Minister of Buddhist faith rubbed up against the Shinto Priest from Dai Nippon; and the fair Egyptian and the Arab, and the horde of Unbelievers from Southern Asia, exchanged glances and gracious bows in the friendliest manner possible. It was the good spirit of the whole Orient that permeated the Japanese street in the Mikado's empire, when the nations of one accord all joined in wishing all manner of success to the two departing Hilloites.—Herald.THE BRIDGE STREET PALMS.
In the columns of the last issue of the Herald it was suggested that the governor be called to produce his promised landscape gardener for the benefit of Hilo park, more particularly to attend to the placing of the Bridge street palms. Since then, the Herald is informed, and the information comes from no less source than that of Mr. J. Castle Ridgway, that all that is necessary is to obtain the line of the main thoroughfare through the park and as the palms are preeminent avenue palms, place them on this line. Mr. Ridgway offers to attend to the placing of the palms if the Board of Trade will secure the transportation. He further suggests that this should be attended at once, as the first heavy rain will expose the roots and a dry spell following will complete the destruction. The palms are there, the park is there, the gardener, Ridgway, is ready, why not go ahead before the poor trees die?—Herald.VOLCANO HOUSE.
Manager Bidgood, who is spending a few days in Hilo, is full of plans for the Fourth of July at the Volcano House. The fact that the Fourth comes on Monday has encouraged him to make arrangements for an exceptional excursion from Hilo to the Volcano, extending over Sunday, the third, and Monday, the Fourth of July. Mr. Bidgood has not completed his plans as yet but promises a luau, dance and grand display of fireworks together with every other attraction possible at the Volcano.—Herald.WAIKAKA SOCIAL SETTLEMENT.
The chapel in Waikaka was well filled last Sunday evening to listen to Judge Kamau of Puna and the special Easter music prepared by Miss Wright and her pupils of the Waikaka Social Settlement. The quartette, composed of Mrs. Josephine Niles, soprano; Mrs. Nakemama, alto; Albert Nansen, tenor; and Sam Likaka, bass, sang "Morning breaks" very acceptably. Miss Wright is making preparations for a concert to be given some time in May, the proceeds to go to the settlement fund.—Herald.HILO EARTHQUAKE.
Quite a heavy shock was felt here Monday morning at 1:30. No damage done. The size of the shock is estimated by the report that it had some connection with Madam Pea's house and this fact seems to be supported by a report from the Volcano that there was an earthquake Monday morning.

vertised most advantageously by sending Company F to St. Louis to take part in the competitive drill during the World's Fair. The gentleman argues that the funds available for an Hawaiian exhibit are so small that such an exhibit would be relegated to some obscure corner, and money expended literally thrown away. On the other hand he claims that the splendid drill, the fine form and physique of the members of Co. F would attract the notice of countless thousands who could not fail to be interested in a country that produces such splendid specimens of humanity. He also argues that the government of the United States would furnish transportation, that the cost of maintenance at St. Louis would be nominal, and that the surplus of funds subscribed for this purpose would help to provide Hilo with an armory. Subscribers to the "Hawaiian" World's Fair exhibit are requested to kindly cogitate.—Tribune.

POLO HORSES RETURN.
Considerable comment was heard on the streets during the past few days in regard to the fine pair of horses, until recently owned by Mr. W. T. Baldwin of Waimanalo. The horses, familiar to every one in Hilo, were purchased by Mr. Baldwin during the polo season a little over a year ago. Humuua Jones having brought them with great care from Waimanalo. Like all Mr. Jones' horses they were of simple habit and cheery dispositions and would have borne Mr. Baldwin nobly, no doubt, had not the interest in the game languished. Polo horses are Mr. Baldwin's fad, as many as four being stabled at Waimanalo at one time, and in all probability the two bays would still be wandering in his paddocks had not Joe Pritchard, in an idle moment, coveted them. However after much debate and a large price his desire was satisfied but the lack of polo and demand for work animals caused Mr. Pritchard to accept an offer from Mr. Rothwell, who has handed the pair over to Mr. Austin of Peacock & Co. The rumor that Mr. Baldwin is negotiating for their purchase is not substantiated.—Herald.NEW ROADS.
G. H. Gero, road engineer of this district, returned to Hilo after three weeks work, retracing the old survey of the road from Kailua to join the Keahou road at Kahuahu. As soon as the data are in shape bids will be advertised for and the work carried on to completion. This road will connect Kailua with the Kailua district and will be a saving of four miles to the resident of that section. Instructions have been received from the assistant superintendent of public works to prepare working data and specifications for the 22 mile road Olua. This road will greatly benefit the homesteaders. Work on the road from Halepuna to Kawaihiku in Puna will be commenced shortly. When this road is completed Kapoho residents will have an outlet to the Hilo-Puna road without driving 4 miles to Pohokuli. The 18 3/4 mile road Olua will be taken in hand as soon as the Puna work is under way. Appropriations from the loan fund cover all the above improvements.—Herald.A WILD PIG HUNT.
Saturday evening last Mr. C. N. Prouty, the genial cashier of the Hilo railroad, took a special train to Puna to enjoy a day's sport in his Porcine Preserves.

Mr. Prouty enjoys an enviable reputation as a slayer of wild animals and we understand that it was due to his efforts that the varmints were entirely exterminated from the woods in and about Spenar, Mass. Accompanied early Sunday morning by his trained pack of Walakea pig hounds they came upon their prey deep in the woods; after an exciting chase of some several hours the boar was brought to bay, and although well provided with pig guns Mr. Prouty was unable to get in a shot, preferring to lose the pig rather than take any chances of injuring one of his valuable dogs. Finally the animal, overcome by the exertion of fighting the dogs, was captured alive by the intrepid hunter and brought into town. Conservative authorities estimate that the animal measured fully 8 inches from tip to tip, and weighed a pound and a half. It is on exhibition.—Herald.

NOTES.
The Hilo Railroad baseball team suffering from their defeat at the hands of the Union Specials have challenged Mr. Knell for a second game.

Mrs. T. M. Rowland entertained a number of friends at her home Monday evening. Cards and a most enjoyable supper kept the guests until a late hour.

J. F. Hackfeld, senior member of the firm of Hackfeld & Co., spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. von Graveneyr. He is now visiting Albert Horner at Kula.

A. B. Lindsay, of Honokaa, spent a few days in town this week. He has arranged with Mr. Terry to ship his coffee to Hilo in the future from whence it goes direct to San Francisco. He reports much rain in the Hamakua district.

J. S. Janeway leaves on the Kinohi Friday for Honolulu en route to Japan and China. Mr. Janeway has been for many years connected with the territorial survey department under Mr. Baldwin. His hosts of friends regret his departure but wish him success in his new field of labor.

The motion for a new trial in the Funakoshi case was argued before Judge Little last Thursday. Attorney Bittling for the defense argued in his usual characteristic manner for the major portion of Thursday morning. In the afternoon Counsel Ridgway made a plain, calm, impartial statement of facts for the Territory. It was noted that the court took careful note of the salient points as presented by the opposing counsel and his learned decision, which will be handed down on the 15th inst., is anxiously awaited by the principals in this case.

COMMERCIAL NEWS

There is expectation that if the legislature passes the loan act amendment, the second million dollars to be placed by the Territory in July, will bring a considerably higher figure than what the first million brought. The bid on the million dollars bonds placed by Secretary Carter was just barely above par, while it has since been learned, that at private sale for the entire issue 102 could have been obtained. The law requires public advertisement for tenders, and the acceptance of the highest bid if above par.

The New York house which secured the bonds did it for clients, who were willing to give 102. Instead there was a combination of banking interests in New York, and the one bid represented the interest of all parties who wanted the bonds. If the next issue can be legally placed at private sale to one party, an offer at 102 will be made. If the amendment proposed by Governor Carter goes through any bid higher than the last one can be accepted without going to additional expense for advertising. The law will be a continuing one, so that every subsequent bid must be at a higher figure than the last sale.

SUGAR.
Sugar dropped slightly during the week, and the latest quotation cabled yesterday was 3.025 or $72.50 per ton. Several large Hawaiian cargoes got the benefit of the higher figure.

The Pepeekeo deal has been closed in San Francisco and as soon as the stock can be transferred on the books of the company here, Brewer & Co. will take over the agency. A meeting of the stockholders has been called for Tuesday at which time a treasurer will be elected to succeed F. M. Swanzy. Mr. Swanzy is away and an officer is needed to sign the stock certificates. The election of officers was postponed until the annual meeting, and the new officers may be chosen at this time as well. Hawaiian Commercial stock which has been active in the San Francisco market has dropped from $51 to $50 per share. There were a number of sales in San Francisco at the latter figure. There has also been considerable activity lately in Honolulu sugar, several hundred shares having changed hands in San Francisco, some of it at $12 5/8 per share. A few months ago as low as $9.50 was offered, though bringing out no stock. Recently there was an advance from $11 7/8 to $12 5/8, which was the closing figure Saturday. The demand for the stock comes from San Francisco, where the plantation is incorporated and where the control is held. The local stockholders have been letting go their stock on the rumor that the stock is soon to be assessed a dollar per month, for a period of three months. Ewa is selling up to par again and Waialua is $37 1/2 bid and $40 asked. A hundred shares of Honoum changed hands at par during the week. The stock had been weak at 100, and some of it was offered for $95. The stiffening in price is due to a report that Honoum is about to pay a dividend.

E. J. Benjamin, vice-president of Grinbaum & Co., agents for Hana plantation, is in on a visit to the islands, for the purpose of inspecting the property. Hana did not plant this season and considerable significance is attached to the visit of Mr. Benjamin who is a large stockholder. Developments are expected at an early date.

R. W. Shingle, president of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., returned yesterday from a business visit to Kohala. Mr. Shingle reports that the recent copious rains have brought out the grass all over the district, and there is plenty of feed for stock. The plantations last year took off an abnormal crop in the Kohala district, and this season, Mr. Shingle reports that the crop will be somewhat below the average yield. The planters in the district are anxiously awaiting developments in the Kohala ditch, which is expected to largely increase the acreage in the Kohala district.

MISCELLANEOUS.
There is talk of a new telephone company in the Kau district on Hawaii. A hundred shares of Kilanea sold on the coast recently at three dollars a share. The Rapid Transit Co., has begun the construction of the work on the Bereania street line beyond Keeaumoku street. Much satisfaction is expressed in business circles over the speedy work being accomplished by the legislature. The report of fire in Olua cane is untrue. F. B. Whiting has purchased the St. Sayres residence at the head of Makiki street.OF UNTOLD VALUE*The Information Contained in This Honolulu Citizen's Statement is Priceless.

Mr. H. G. Crabbe, of Nuanuan street, clerk, now a collector, writes: "My age is 69 years, and I am blessed with children and grandchildren. A short time ago I purchased some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at Hillier & Co's Drug Store, and found great relief through using them.
